Keynote

Life at Southern Missionary College is as varied and colorful as 2,000 personalities can make it. College activities sweep the campus in an endless procession of colors, shapes and sounds. Classes merge with courses, weeks with months, individuals with the group. Like the music of a great orchestra, its harmonies are forever shifting, throbbing, blending, re-emerging in a different form. Every life on the campus contributes its note of joy or indifference, thoughtfulness or courage.

But beyond the rush of classes, the tension of dormitory life, the fever of extra-curricular plans that shape our days, there must be a place where we can catch the rhythm of living, follow its trend, and in the end discover the theme that dominates every phase of SMC life.

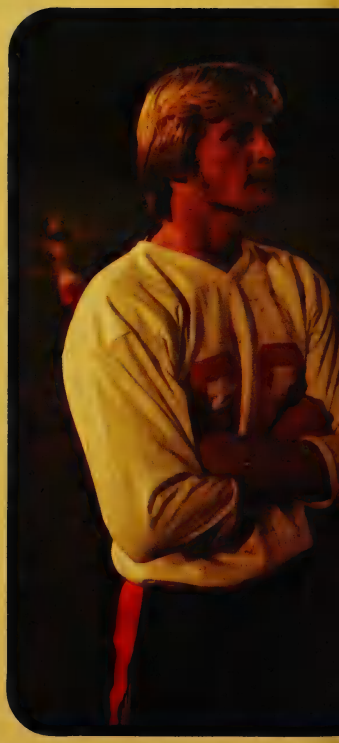
The white heat of yesterday's ideas are today's memories. SOUTHERN MEMORIES of 1979-1980 has tried to crystallize for you not only the sound and color of campus life, but the motive behind it; not merely its music, but its meaning: Service—the service of love, the simplest and the highest living required by God of any man. As you trace the outward aspects of Southern Missionary College on these pages, listen for the melody of its aspirations. They are your challenge—and your memories.

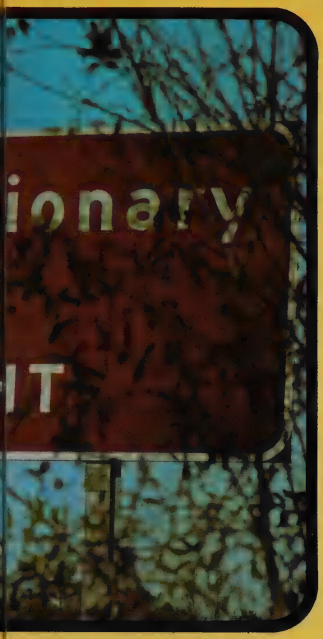
Adopted from the 1948 SOUTHERN MEMORIES

Dedication

In sincere appreciation for his forty years of service in Seventh-day Adventist educational institutions, including many years at SMC; for his Christian example which has inspired others to higher goals of service throughout the world; for his efforts as a teacher, biologist, and friend; we dedicate this, the 1980 SOUTHERN MEMORIES, to Dr. H. H. "Boots" Kuhlman.

Many things make up college life . . . buildings, students, faculty, term papers, dorm life, extra-curricular activities; all these blend as over 2,000 distinct personalities engage in the business of learning.



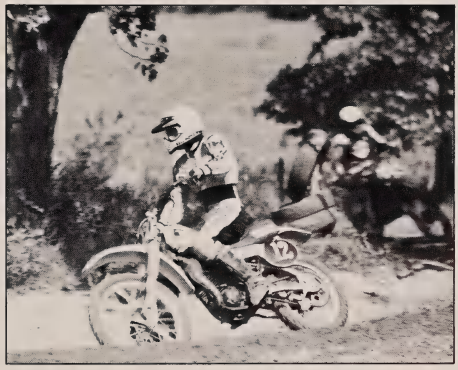


THIS IS SMC . . .

SMC is harmonious singing during each Friday night vespers, thought - provoking sermons by the church pastors, a refreshing Sabbath rest, and the knowledge that God is very close.

SMC is a special person, a special day, a special question and a special yes. And, too, SMC is remembering the crazy pranks and stunts; the lominos and M & M shakes at the CK. It is hungry dogs that win the compassion of students. It is laughter and tears, lonely times and togetherness, joy and sadness.

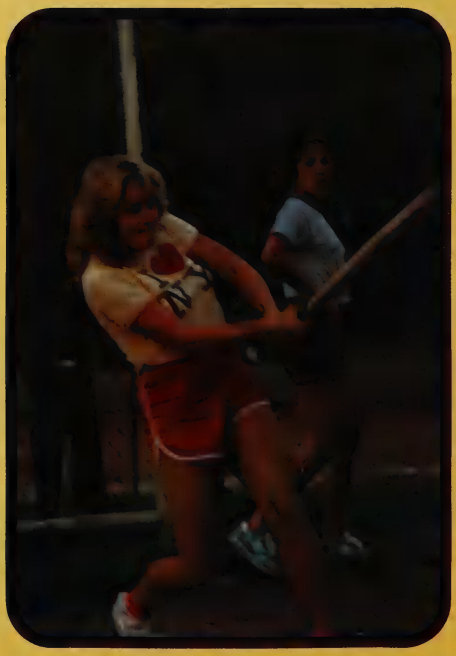
SMC is people, activities, and feelings; professors and administrators sharing their thoughts and ideas. There is the swirling dizziness of hundreds of umbrellas as students slosh to chapel.



KEN SLATE

DONNIE KEELE

SMC is jogging in the early morning frost inhaling the smell of Little Debbie cakes while you are trying to be a faithful fat-fighter. To some, SMC is sports—a time to participate in a vigorous game of racketball after a tense day of classes, or a time for spectators to cheer their favorite team on to victory.



DAN GIMBEL

Whether one is involved in band, orchestra, choir, chorale, or another musical organization, he or she may make a significant contribution to music at SMC, since music is said to be all things to all people.

DEAN EDWARDS

A new decade brings new students, new ideas, and new aspirations. Buildings, traditions, classes, and some teachers may change, but the Christian spirit remains and continues to grow.

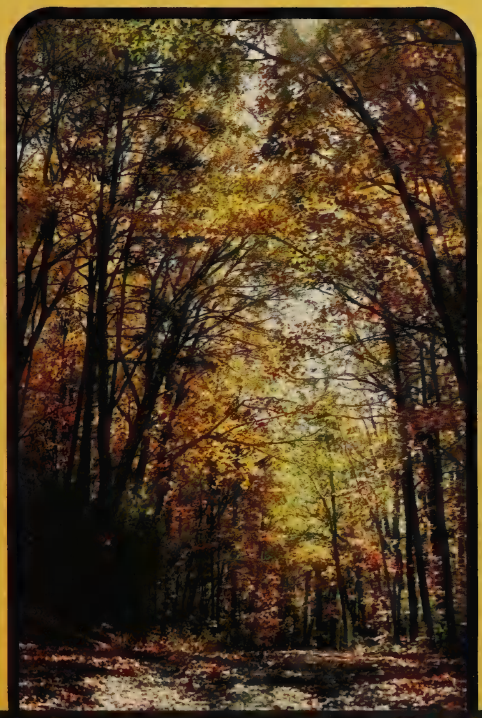
DONNIE KEELE

As graduation approaches, many of us look to the future with mixed emotions. A whole new world awaits us and we eagerly face new challenges. We will not forget our years at SMC. This end is yet another beginning.

KEN SLATE

SMC is the place where we began to ask ourselves "Who am I?" "Where did I come from?" but most importantly "Where am I going?" We don't discover answers in one sitting, but we are better people for having sought.

Many things have transpired in the years that we have been here, but we always remember our goal in searching. We will continue to seek for answers, and being led by God, we will ultimately find them. THIS IS SMC.



KEN SLATE

Welcome

Week of Prayer

THE BEST OF THE NEW

The Student Association sponsored the Best of the New which offered the best talent of the new school year. It was an evening full of fun and entertainment hosted by Coneheads Ken Bradley and Ron Mackey.

FALL RIVERBOAT CRUISE

The evenings of October 16 and 17 found many SMC couples aboard a riverboat for an old-fashioned cruise down the Tennessee River. Sponsored by the Men's Club, the ride consisted of an enjoyable evening among friends with good food and good music.

LET'S MAKE A DEAL

Students, fully decked out in outrageous costumes, participated in the SA version of the game show "Let's Make a Deal." Big winners included Mark Fowler, Young Huh, and Craig Simmons.

FALL FESTIVAL

In celebration of autumn—a clear, crisp and colorful season—students and faculty gathered in the Student Park one Sunday evening for a break from studies, fellowship with each other, and half of the movie, Francis Goes to West Point.

BLUE JEANS BANQUET

In November, women mustered up their courage and invited the man of their choice to the SA Blue Jeans Banquet. A re-creation of the Old West provided the theme and backdrop for lots of special music and skits.

CHRISTMAS SEASON

The Christmas Season at SMC officially began with the annual Christmas Tree Lighting. Santa Claus, alias Roger Burke, arrived on one of Collegedale's fire trucks bringing goodies to the crowds of eager people.

The SMC Band presented their annual Christmas Concert with guest artist.

As usual Santa Claus Grundset created a jovial atmosphere with his presence after his arrival via wheelbarrow.

SMC

WOMEN'S RECEPTION—The biennial Sigma Theta Chi Reception held at scenic Lake Arrowhead, Georgia, was perhaps one of the most elegant and memorable evenings of the school year.

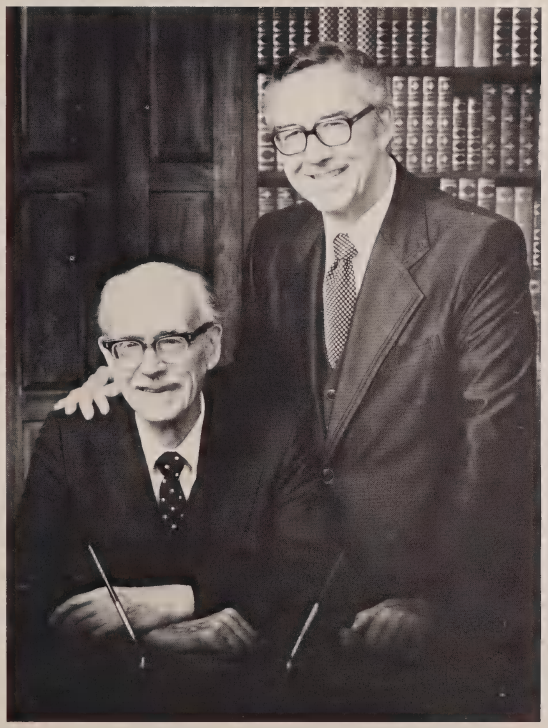
VOICE OF PROPHECY Golden Anniversary



H. M. S. Richards, one of the pioneers of religious radio programming, was honored as the Voice of Prophecy radiobroadcast celebrated its golden anniversary on February 24 in the Physical Education Center. Appearing with Dr. Richards at the Golden Jubilee celebration was the entire Voice of Prophecy broadcast team: H. M. S. Richards, Jr., director-speaker; the King's Heralds Quartet; Del Delker, broadcast soloist; and Jim Teel, pianist. While conducting evangelistic crusades in southern and central California during the late 1920s, Richards used radio a few times to announce his meetings and to give inspirational worship talks for stations nearby. In 1930, the young evangelist began his continuous association with radio when he accepted an invitation to conduct a regular 15-minute devotional program on station KNX in Los Angeles. Broadcast coverage increased gradually during the program's first decade, and then went coast-to-coast in January, 1942, over 89 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System. Within 10 months, coverage on Mutual expanded to 225 stations. Shortly after going coast-to-coast, listeners were invited to write for free Bible study lessons. Nearly three-quarters of a million students have been graduated since the Bible Correspondence School began 38 years ago. Each year, more than 23,000 persons complete the free courses. Today the Voice of Prophecy radio program is heard in 36 languages around the world, and Bible courses are offered in 80 languages by 120 affiliated schools.

LYNN WOOD HALL

This relic of days gone by was named in honor of Dr. Lynn Wood, president of SMC from 1918 to 1922. Lynn Wood Hall is a three-story structure housing the departments of Religion, Communication, History, Modern Languages, Education, and Office Administration, in addition to Audio-Visual Services and WSMC-FM, the college's 100,000 watt radio station.

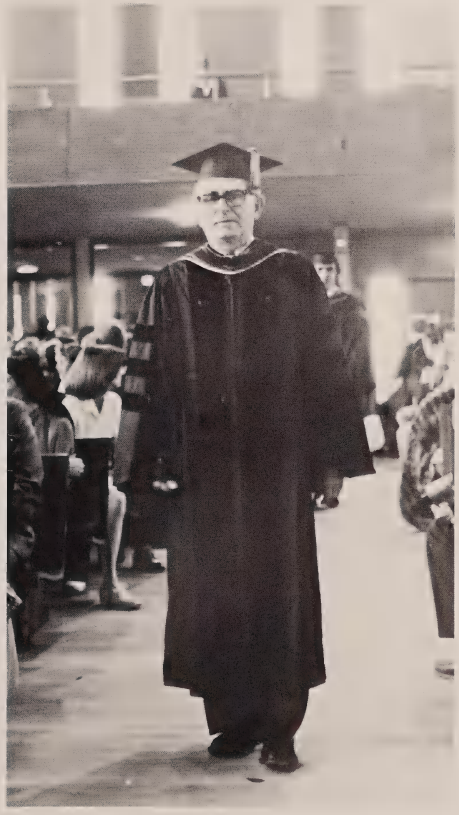
December Graduation

As you march down the aisle keeping in step to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," a wave of emotion sweeps the air when you catch a warm smile from a friend, notice a tear sliding down Mom's cheek, and receive a look of respect from a faculty member.

It is a long walk down that aisle for your diploma; it has been a long walk through those years of college. YOU FINALLY MADE IT AND THIS IS YOUR BIG DAY. This is your GRADUATION, your day of recognition for achieving your goal.



NURSES PINNING

After retaking test after test, endless modules, and months and years of forcing oneself out of bed for those early morning labs, the end is in sight. It has all been worth it when you proudly display your pin to Mom and Dad and look to the future . . . your future as a nurse.

TALGE HALL

Formerly the women's residence hall, Talge Hall has been converted to accommodate approximately 500 men. This modern structure was completed in 1961 to house 275 students. In 1964 and 1976, new wings were completed to house an additional 235 students.

THATCHER HALL

Thatcher Hall provides housing facilities for women. This three-story building is carpeted and air-conditioned throughout with a bath between each two rooms. Thatcher Hall was built in 1969 with an addition completed in 1978. The two connected buildings house 750 women.

A Message from the President

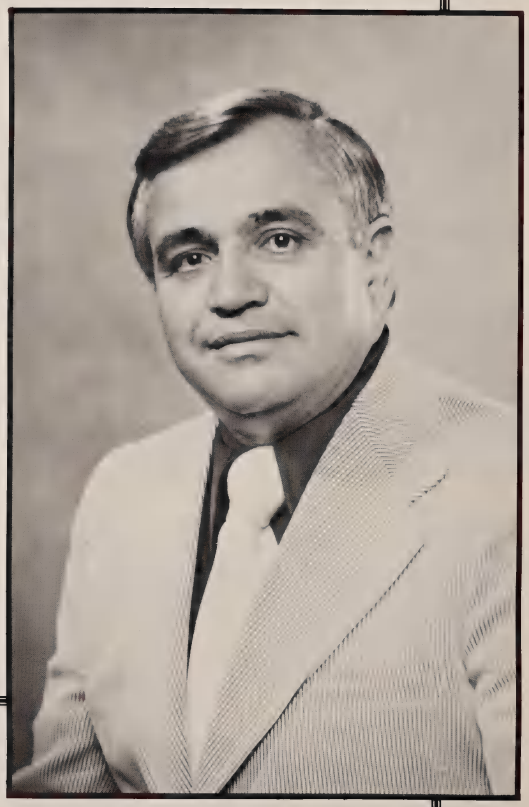
Frank Knittel

It is a pity that some students go through a college experience and do not take away in their memories the emotions of the joys and sorrows which attended their college days. And a yearbook is designed to help us with just such memories.

It is the hope of the editors of this volume that in the years to come you will be able to recall those wonderful moments which gave meaning to life on the SMC campus.

There are always a few who would just as soon not be pictured in a yearbook. How sad! What an immense tragedy it is to go through life and be forgotten.

It is my personal hope for each reader of this book that memories of the past will renew conviction for the pesent—as long as books and memories exist. This volume is only a foretaste of what the New Earth will really be like—a land where we shall know each other as personal friends and where our memories will ever be joyous and fulfilling.



Administration

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CENTER

The SMC Committee of 100 on September 30, 1965, officially opened the new Physical Education Building which they had made financially possible.

Classrooms, offices, storage rooms, two large locker rooms, three basketball courts, an Olympic-size swimming pool, handball courts, and racketball courts are all housed in the Physical Education Center. One of the main features of the gymnasium is its maple parquet floating floor.

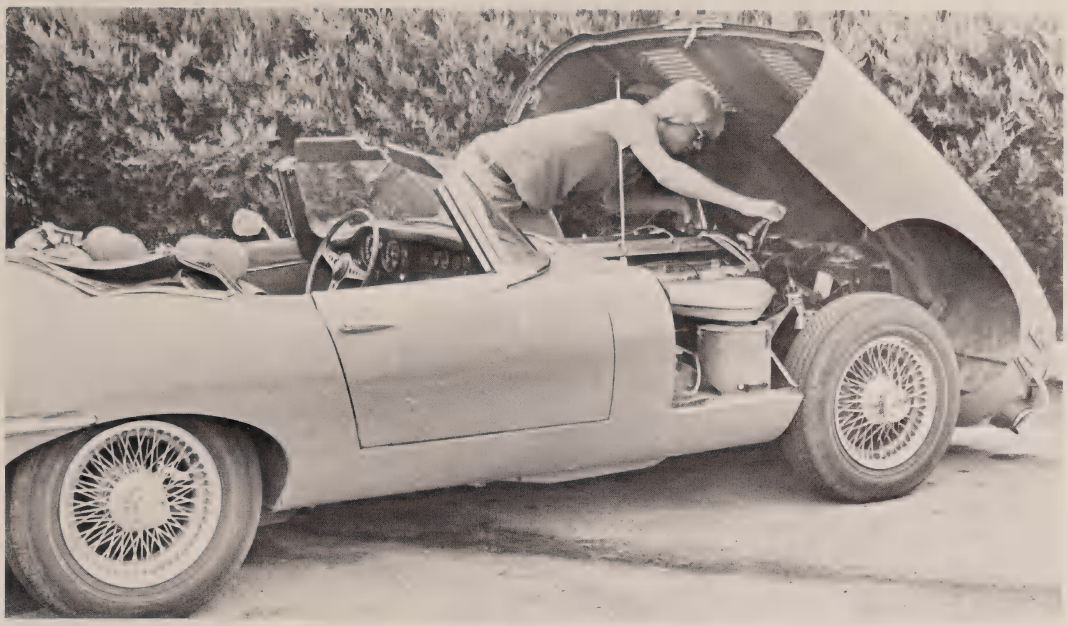
Orlando

ORLANDO

In the second and seventh semesters of the nursing program, students leave friends and the Collegedale weather behind and move themselves along with most of their possessions to Orlando, Florida, for a semester of practical learning experience as well as more classes in Med-Surg, OB, and Mental Health. Despite pressures from school and work, the nursing students enjoy the family-like closeness of a smaller campus as they swarm to the nearby beaches and attractions such as Disney World.

ANNE SCHUTTE



SMC's Future

NEW BUILDINGS

Construction is underway on the new music building, the first structure of the Fine Arts Complex.

The complex will contain the music department, the art department, and communications department. The new buildings will also be made available for classroom use and for general campus and community functions. Also attached to the communications building will be WSMC-FM, the campus radio station.

NEW BUILDINGS

O. D. McKee, a graduate of SMC and Chairman of the Board of McKee Baking Company, is serving as General Chairman of the 3.3 million capital campaign, entitled SMC Project 80.

The structure is being built by SMC's construction crew under the direction of Francis Costerisan, plant engineer.

COLLEGE PLAZA

In 1963, a new 26,000 square footage of shopping center had its grand opening in Collegedale. This center, built by the college construction crew and supervised by Mr. Francis Costerisan, had covered walks, air conditioning, background music, and parking space for 98 cars.

By 1971, the new Village Market joined the Credit Union, Collegedale Distributors, Southern Mercantile, Campus Shop, Campus Kitchen, Book and Bible House, Hair Designers, Washateria, Collegedale Insurance Company, and Post Office at the south end of the plaza.

Dear Sharon,

What a year this has been. Very interesting indeed! It's been a rough year for us, but it's been a lot of fun being your friend and roommate. We've had our ups and downs, but all always remembered the fun and crazy times we had together. I just wish we could have had more time to spend together and get to know each other even better. Sorry, I never wanted to hurt you. Something to hurt you. I'm sorry, I never wanted to hurt you. I love you and only wanted to help. I appreciate some of the advice you've given me and thanks for putting up with me. I know I'm a real "witch" sometimes. I do hope you will come back. I know I'm not the best roommate. Like I said before, SMC may not be the place for everyone but I do hope you will come back next year and be my roommate. This year hasn't been the best for you because of several different circumstances, but I believe next year will be a better year for both of us. I wish you the best of luck in your job and I hope you have lots of fun. I'll be rooting for you and I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Take care of yourself and please write me this summer. I'll see you next year. Okay? I know I'm crazy. We both are. But it's for an answer. Right? No arguments!! I'll see you next year. I don't see ya then, I'll see ya in heaven - face to face. Take care and remember I love you and so does God.

Love ya lots,
Julie

BACK TO BASICS

Real happiness is found only in being good and doing good. The purest, highest enjoyment comes to those who faithfully fulfill their appointed duties. No honest work is degrading. It is ignoble sloth which leads human beings to look down on the simple, everyday duties of life.

Dear Shari, (Sharon) (4.26.80) (Sat. night)

Since you are the most important person on earth it is most appropriate that after your first year of college the first yearbook you sign should be your own and also that you should be the first person to sign it.

What a very eventful year of college especially since your first plans were to stay out a years before you went to college. How I've learned that no matter what you plan something usually messes it up. This year has really been something else for me. I've met some really unique and wonderful people. There's Netta (Jeanette). Always willing to give advise when you've got a problem. I really enjoyed her bright smile and sympathetic ear. There was Julia. Oh yes, Julia, she stood in the background so long just waiting for me to see her wanting all the time for me to be friend. A wonderful, true friend. And then last but finitly for from least is Delores. My little Boos. 4'10". Brave, assured, little control yet soft under that in total front. Warm and very lovable. I really didn't want to get close to anyone. I had to also put up a front but somehow I just couldn't help but love Delores. There was something about her. I enjoyed being with her alot although it probably drove her crazy. I felt her getting close so I did all I could to try to push her away yet it was me who was hanging on. As a result we came to be at odds. I moved out of the room and there was much tension but Delores had the grace to forgive me and we are, I hope and trust, still friends and will remain so until Jesus comes. I probably will never see her again but I'm glad we met. She has taught me much. I will not forget any of the people I've met here. I shall miss them all.

Sincerely + Sadly,
Sharon Blackburn

Dear Sharon,
The year was interesting knowing you. All those nasty to notes, making the old blood pump faster. I swear, what a way to have to get money. All those dirty jugs down there. Well, it's a shame to not have found out about one + Thursday nights (3 for 2?)
Sonny. Hope you come back next year, well both have care then (hopefully!) You'll run the beer fund knowing you! Keep up next year! Love, Bald (Leather Ass)
